

Pack Behavioral Contract

On my honor, I will do my best. we all know the words. Cub Scouting has a very important purpose and that purpose is to help you prepare for Boy Scouting as well as teaching you the tools you will need to be a successful and likeable young man. Cub Scouting teaches:

- | | |
|-------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| a.. Character Development | f.. Respectful Relationships |
| b.. Spiritual Growth | g.. Personal Achievement |
| c.. Good Citizenship | h.. Friendly Service |
| d.. Sportsmanship and Fitness | i.. Fun and Adventure |
| e.. Family Understanding | j.. Preparation for Boy Scouts |

It is your job as future Boy Scouts to step up to the challenge and exceed expectations set for and by you.

By signing this behavior contract, you are not only working toward Cub Scouting's purposes but also promising to live by Cub Scouting's core values!

I promise to uphold the Scouting Core Values to the best of my ability and I understand that by signing this, I am claiming responsibility for my words and actions. As a responsible Scout, I understand that the ability to be the best that I can be lies solely in my power and I must work daily to take care of myself and take care of others through all the values explained here.

CUB SCOUTING'S 12 CORE VALUES :

- 1.. Citizenship: Contributing service and showing responsibility to local, state, and national communities.
I promise to do my best to uphold the law, to become socially aware, and to work for community betterment through service projects offered through, but not limited to, Scouting.
- 2.. Compassion: Having consideration and concern to the well-being of others.
I promise to show consideration of others by working out differences instead of resorting to name-calling and/or aggression, acting out in a negative manner, or interfering with the learning opportunities of others.
- 3.. Cooperation: Working together with others toward a common goal.
I promise to help other Scouts who may need it, to be part of the team, to be supportive of ideas, and to keep a positive attitude.
- 4.. Courage: Doing what is right regardless of its difficulty or the consequences.
I promise that I will strive to be the best Scout I can be, to act in an honorable manner, to make my Akelas and Leaders proud of my accomplishments but most importantly to be proud of myself.
- 5.. Faith: Having inner strength and confidence based on our trust in a higher power.
I promise to be reverent and respectful to others in the way that my faith shows me to be. I will rely on the strength of my faith to teach me right and wrong. I know that through my faith, all things are possible and that each Scout relies on his faith in his own way and that serves as a constant reminder to me to cherish and thankful what has been provided to me.
- 6.. Health and Fitness: Being personally committed to care for our minds and bodies.
I promise to exercise not only my mind but also my body by pushing them both to the limit and celebrating what I am capable of doing as an individual and with my Den and Pack.
- 7.. Honesty: Telling the truth and being worthy of trust.
I promise to be responsible for my words and actions - to own them, even if they are not in the positive spirit of Scouting. I know that by owning my words and actions, I can learn from them and grow into the kind of friend I'd like to have as my own.
- 8.. Perseverance: Sticking with something and not giving up, even if it is difficult.
I promise to try - try anything that will help me grow, learn, and enable me to know the great person I am capable of being. I know that I may not pursue every interest that is introduced to me in Scouting but I will be appreciative of the experience and I will do my best in whatever I attempt.
- 9.. Positive Attitude: Setting our minds to look for and find the best in all situations.
I promise to be a good sport, a supporter of my Scouting brothers, and encourage others to do their best as well. I will treat others as I wish to be treated. I will take on any challenge with a "Can Do" attitude.
- 10.. Resourcefulness: Using human and other resources to their fullest.
I promise to offer my ideas, my suggestions, and my experiences to the Den and the Pack. I know that everyone has a gift and mine may just be the one that makes us succeed as a group. I promise to help others reach their potential by encouraging them to share their gifts as well.
- 11.. Respect: Showing regard for the worth of something or someone.
I promise that I will make it my duty to show respect for all forms of life, including my Scouting brothers. I will appreciate the uniqueness of every person. I will work to understand what it means to walk in another man's shoes.
- 12.. Responsibility: Fulfilling our duty to take care of others and of ourselves.
