Answer to 911 Puzzle

Opening Campfires

Personnel: 7 Cubs

Equipment: Artificial Campfire

Cub 1: (As fire is lighted) The early cave men used the fire to protect themselves from wild beasts and to warm their bodies.

Cub 2: In ancient times the Phoenicians used fire on mountain tops or high pillars as beacons for their ships.

Cub 3: The American Indian used fire to hollow logs for his canoes, to fire pottery and for ceremonial purposes.

Cub 4: The pioneer used fire to forge rims for his wagon wheels. The silhouette of the village smithy against his fire was a common sight in early America.

Cub 5: The cowboys of the old west sat around the campfire with a pot of coffee and beans. Their entertainment was the signing of ballads of the trail, accompanied by guitar or harmonica.

Cub 6: Fire today makes the wheels of commerce and industry turn. In essence, fire has put men on the moon.

Cub 7: Fire is the universal symbol of Scout camping. The fellowship around the campfire is one of the most lasting memories in the life of a Scout. If every Cub Pack and Boy Scout troop in the world had a campfire such as this one tonight, the glow would light the world with a new hope for mankind.

A Great Host of Heroes

By Heart of America Council

Personnel: Cubmaster or Den Leader Setting: The colors are advanced in the normal manner. A spotlight is shined on flag while the narrator speaks off stage.

Flag: A great host of heroes, with the help of God, have kept me gallantly flying in the face of every threat and challenge to the democratic way of life I represent. The blood spilled in battles great and small all over the world is in my red stripes. The shining light of freedom is in my white stripes, penetrating the blackest night and filling the nations darkest hours with hope. The vast infinity of the heavens is in my stars, inspiring mankind to continue climbing up the staircase of history to a world of glowing promise. I am the emblem of man's finest dreams. I am the last hope of peace on earth.

I am the American Flag.

Ceremonies

Fire Safety Opening
By Santa Clara Council

Setting: The room lights are turned off. The Cubmaster lights a candle.

Cubmaster: Cub Scouts, this candlelight represents the spirit of Cub Scouting, lighting our way through life. This flame also represents danger. As fire detectives, you have learned about the danger of fire and how to prevent it. Let's remember what we have learned so we will always use fire wisely and safely, not only today but the rest of your life.

This light of Cub Scouting gives us warmth and good cheer. Make sure it is never allowed to run wild and destroy lives and property. Let's always be fire detectives.

(Lights on. Have a Webelos den post the U.S. flag and lead in the Pledge of Allegiance.)

Three Elements

By Heart of America Council

Personnel: Cubmaster

Cubmaster: I still remember when I was a Cub Scout and they taught us that a fire has to have three elements: Heat, fuel and air. Without any of those parts, no fire.

Our Pack needs several elements, too. We need boys to become Bobcats, Bobcats to become Wolves, Wolves to become Bears, and Bears to earn the Webelos badge and Arrow of Light. Each one of the boys we recognize here tonight is doing his part to keep our Pack going, just as it says in the Law of the Pack.

(Present awards. A fire fighter, in uniform, could be present. It would be a nice touch for him to hand the badges to the parents for them to pin on. He should, of course, congratulate the boys, too.)

HOMETOWN HEROES OPENING

By Santa Clara Council

C.S.#1: Sometimes a local hero is obvious, the policeman who risks his life to protect us from violence or the fireman who pulls people out of burning buildings.

C.S.#2: Other heroes that come to mind are the ambulance drivers, paramedics, doctors and nurses who save lives everyday.

C.S.#3: Some people around us seem like regular people, but they are heroes because they used to be soldiers in the military and served our country to keep us free.

C.S.#4: A hero is someone who does the right thing, even when they are afraid of failure. They do it because it should be done.

C.S.#5: Some heroes are harder to spot, but they are still there. My heroes include the people who donate blood, teachers who spend their time and energy helping kids, and kids who say "No" to drugs.

C.S.#6: Heroes are all around us. Please join in saluting all the heroes of our country, by repeating with me the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

AS A GOOD CITIZEN OPENING

C.S.#1: As a good citizen I will try to be helpful and kind.

C.S.#2: I will strive to take good care of all property and practice safety and health rules.

C.S.#3: I will practice thrift and good work habits.

C.S.#4: I will show a respect for authority. I will be honest and dependable.

C.S.#5: Fair play and good manners will be my goal.

C.S.#6: I will take pride in achieving and be patriotic and loyal to my hometown and country.

By Santa Clara Council Fireman's Applause: Make sounds, "Crackle, crackle, pop" as you move your fingers over your head. Then make a sound like a fire engine. Grab your hose and spray on the fire and "hiss-s-s" the is fire out.

HERO ADVANCEMENT

By Santa Clara Council Props: "Medals of Honor" made from construction paper and attached to loops of crepe streamer to be hung around the Cub Scouts' necks. Label the medals "HERO."

Cubmaster: Often we hear of professional athletes being called "sports heroes." That's a colorful description, but all they are really doing is playing a game to entertain us. Some of these people really are heroes, but that comes from things they do off the playing field to help their communities.

A hero is a person who is not afraid to do what he believes is right. He is a person who wants to make things better for other people. He is usually prepared and trained to do the job. And he will do his best even if he is afraid because it is important to him to do what is right.

The following boys are heroes to me. They have chosen to work hard and prepare themselves in life by learning Cub Scouting ideals. They are learning to be independent and successful and happen to have a lot of fun along the way. Please join me in congratulating the heroes who have earned their Bobcat rank (call out names of boys and their parents) present rank awards and place medals around the boys' necks. Continue in a similar manner for each additional rank.

DEN LEADER RECOGNITION

By Santa Clara Council

This month's theme is "Hometown Heroes." As we found out, there are all kinds of heroes in our community--firefighters, policemen, teachers, doctors, and young Scouts, to name a few. In our pack we have heroes. They are den leaders. committee leaders and parent helpers. Tonight I would like to recognize one of our den leader heroes. This den leader has completed the requirements for the Den Leader Award. These requirements are not easy to do. You need extra special dedication to complete them. Will (Name of the leader), please come forward? We want you to know that we appreciate all the time and effort that you put forth. You are helping shape these boys' lives and building the leaders of tomorrow. I would like to present to you the Den Leader's Award Certificate and Square Knot that you can wear on your uniform.

Congratulations and Thank You.

NOTES: Leaders Awards are given at the District Dinner (please see the "Theme Related") but it should be re-presented or recognized at the pack meeting so the pack families and boys know the work that leader has done.

C.P.R. Skit

By Santa Clara Council

The first Scout comes out walking around; he suddenly grabs his chest and falls to the ground. Two other scouts come in talking about just completing their First Aid badge and find the scout on the ground. They rush to his aid and begin C.P.R. Adjust head, listen, feel for pulse and then begin (fake) compressions. The other scout counts. After about 3 sets, the other yells "switch". Suddenly the scout on the ground gets up, one of the two scouts lies down, and they begin to administer C.P.R.

One Good Deed

By Grand Canyon Council

One day in the year 1909 the city of London was in the grip of a dense fog. An American businessman, William D. Boyce, paused under a street lamp to locate himself. Out of the gloom a boy approached him and asked if he could be of help. Boyce told the boy that he was trying to find a certain business office in the center of the city. "I'll take you there," the boy said. When they got to the office, the American reached into his pocket for a tip. But the boy stopped him saying, "No thank you, sir. I am a Scout. I can't take anything for helping." Of course Boyce was curious. So the boy told him about himself and his brother Scouts. Boyce was interested and asked the boy to take him to the British Scout Office when he was finished with his errand. There the boy disappeared. At the office, Boyce met Baden-Powell, the famous British general who had founded the Scouting movement. Boyce was impressed. And so, on Feb. 8, 1910, in Washington, DC, Boyce and a group of outstanding men founded the Boy Scouts of America.

But what happened to the boy? No one knows. He was never heard of again, but he will never be forgotten. In the British Scout Training Center at Gilwell Park, England, a statue of a buffalo was erected in honor of that "Unknown Scout". His Good Turn to one man became a Good Turn to millions of American boys. You can never tell...

Quotations contain the wisdom of the ages, and are a great source of inspiration for Cubmaster's minutes, material for an advancement ceremony or an insightful addition to a Pack Meeting program cover.

"FEELING OF GOODWILL"--CUBMASTER'S MINUTE

By Santa Clara Council

A friend of mine once told me of being on a long business trip. His car broke down in the middle of nowhere and he was going to be late for a very important meeting. Just then a farmer came around the corner on a hay wagon, and pulled over to see what was wrong. The farmer and his son often fixed their own machinery and they were quickly able to get my friend's car running again.

My friend offered to pay the farmer and his son for their help, but they refused. He insisted that they must take something because they had saved him so much by letting him get to his meeting on time.

The farmer replied that he and his son now had something far more valuable than the businessman could give them. They had helped someone when they did not have to. That gave them a warm feeling about themselves. If they took the money for an act of kindness, then it would simply be a job, and take the feeling of goodwill away.

Keep your feelings of goodwill by helping others. It will be the most valuable reward you will ever receive.

"BE PREPARED"--CUBMASTER'S MINUTE

By Santa Clara Council

Being a hero does not mean that you must risk your own life. It can mean getting help, or making a phone call to 911 to get the police, or fire department, or an ambulance. The key is to use wisdom and judgment, but to do it quickly. Sometimes time is limited. You can save a drowning person by pulling them in with a life ring, and not become a victim yourself by jumping in after them. Many times an adult has been saved because a child knew to call 911 in an emergency and get help right away. You never know when or where emergencies will

You never know when or where emergencies will arise. Cub Scouting teaches us to handle these situations. We don't expect to get hurt, and don't expect to need first aid, but we are prepared just in case. Do Your Best!

1/2 cup dry split peas

1 inexpensive knit glove (such as magic glove) 30 inches of flat elastic, 1/4 to 1/2 inch wide Hot glue gun

Pour the peas into the glove. Tie a knot at one end of the elastic, and place the knotted end into the cuff of the glove. Run a line of hot glue across the inside of the cuff. Using a towel or glove to protect your hand, push the glove together, squeezing the hot glue across the inside of the cuff of the glove. Be careful not to touch the hot glue. When the glue is cool, tie a large loop (big enough to go around your wrist) in the other end of the elastic. Can be used to play tag. Or to go hand fishing. Cut a few fish shapes from carpet (or craft foam) and stick the barbed half of a self adhesive Velcro closure to each one. Place your fish in the center of a "pond" (a large rug is fine). CLOSING CEREMONY Heroes

Personnel: Cubmaster or Den Leader

Cubmaster: As we come to the end of our Pack meeting, I would ask that you stop for a moment and think with me about the 56 men who signed the Declaration of Independence over 200 years ago. Five were captured and imprisoned in the war that followed. Nine died of wounds or hardships. Twelve lost their homes. Seventeen lost everything they owned. Every one of them was hunted. Most were driven into hiding. They were offered immunity, rewards, the return of their property, or freedom of loved ones if they would give up their cause. That cause was freedom. Not one did. Not one man broke his pledge Because of men like that, men of dedication and purpose, we enjoy living in a free country today.

HERO CLOSING

By Santa Clara Council

Props: Large cards spelling out H-E-R-O, with lines on the back for the boys to read.

H Help is on the way. A hero is someone who helps.

E Everyone can be a hero. You just have to be prepared and know that you can make a difference.

R Remember that even brave people can be afraid. It is acting even when you are scared that makes you brave.

O One person can make a difference. One person who helps can change someone's world.

HOMETOWN HEROES CLOSING

C.S.#4: Do the same as they do--do more than your share.

C.S.#5: Help your parents whenever they ask and even when they don't.

C.S.#6: Maybe someday, there will be a boy who will say you are his hero.

Do more than believe...practice

Do more than be fair...be kind

Group of Scouts to one side - (They will repeat the Cub Scout Promise later)

Boy with lit candle and parents come forward to Cubmaster.

LEADER: (name), I see you enjoyed your first pack meeting tonight. You carry with you the spirit of Cub Scouting. Would you like to join our pack?

BOY: Yes, I would like to become a Cub Scout. PARENTS: Yes, (name), would make a fine Cub Scout.

LEADER: we would be very pleased to have him join our pack. However, if your sons is to receive a quality Cub Scout program we need help from the parents as pack and den leaders and as pack committee persons.

DAD: I can't help! I work. You'll have to ask somebody else.

MOM: I can't help! I have house work. You'll have to ask somebody else.

LIGHTS OUT.....

LEADER: There's a clever young fellow named somebody else. There's nothing this fellow can't do... He's busy from morning 'till way late at night. Just substituting for you. You're asked to do this or

Asked to do that, And what is your ready reply? "Get Somebody else", Mister Cubmaster, "I know He'll do it much better than I."

There's so much to do in our scouting, so much and the workers are few... and somebody else is getting weary and worn Just substituting for you. So next time you're asked to do something worthwhile, Just give this reply: "If somebody else can give time and support you bet your last dime so can I."

(Pack leaders & committee should be ready to come forward)

LEADER: To give our sons a meaningful Cub Scout experience we need somebody else - A small group of parents can not do it themselves.

LEADER: The Cub Scout Spirit Burns dimly in the boys hand and heart.

(Committee Chairman comes forward and lights candle)

(Pack and Den Leaders come forward and light their candles)

ALL ABOVE AID IN LIGHTING PARENTS CANDLES THROUGHOUT THE ROOM.

Honesty

By Great Salt Lake Council
Lord Baden-Powell, the founder of Scouting, said,
"Honesty is a form of honor. An honorable man can be trusted with any amount of money or other valuables with the certainty that he will not steal it." When you feel inclined to cheat in order to win a game, just say to yourself, "After all it's only a game. It won't kill me to lose." If you keep your head this way, you will find that you are the winner

Slide of the Month: Emergency Slides

By Heart of America Council
This idea may come in handy when you find yourself without a slide. All you need is a 12" piece of 1/8" or 3/16' cord, either twisted or braided. I happened to have some nylon parachute cord, which worked out nicely.

Matchstick Pulse Meter

By Heart of America Council Your pulse can be converted to a visual display, as the scientists say. you can easily make this pulse-watching device with a bit of clay and a matchstick.

- 1 .Roll a ball of clay about the size of a dime. Stick a wooden match into the ball.
- 2.Place it on your wrist. Shift it around until you find the spot with the strongest beat.
 3.Impress your friends, tell them you have made a device to test cardiac beat frequency.
 Ask if you can try it out on them.
 (You can also use a thumbtack base.)
